overpopulation and over consumption of resources have left humans in a regrettable state, but not without some promise. Oil and minerals are mined and then somehow synthetically turned into food. Gateway (Heechee Saga, #1) by Frederik Pohl Gateway is an artificial spaceport full of working interstellar ships that were left behind by this mysterious alien race called the Heecheees. These ships are pre-programmed by the aliens (that never show up in the book by the way) to take you to various destinations in the universe. 50% of the ships come back and a few of the astronauts die.
